Jacob D. Rozbruch, MD
Chief
General Orthopedics
Beth Israel Medical Center

About Dr. Rozbruch

Dr. Rozbruch is currently the Chief of General Orthopedics at Beth Israel Medical Center. For nearly 30 years, Dr. Rozbruch has focused on treating a broad spectrum of orthopedic conditions, ranging from lower spine and advanced arthritic joint problems of the hip, knee, and shoulder, to trauma and sports injuries to the ankle, knee, and shoulder. He is known for his expertise in total joint replacement, lumbar spine surgery, and arthroscopic shoulder and knee surgery, as well as his exceptional, personal patient care.

Prior to joining Beth Israel-Petrie Division, Dr. Rozbruch was the Chief of Orthopedic Surgery at Beth Israel-Singer Division from 1987-1995, and is credited with building the hospital's Orthopedic Department into one of the largest in New York City.
